

My Name is John Grendon and I represent “ELASTEC” from the US

ELASTEC

- Elastec manufacture “Pollution Control Systems” and “Environmental Protection Equipment”, with core competency in “Oil Spill Recovery”
- Elastec are the largest producer of “Oil Spill Recovery Equipment” in America and are recognized as “Global Leaders” in the industry
- Elastec have 4 factories in the US and employ over 130 people
- Elastec’s product testing is “Independently Verified” by, “American Society Testing Materials” providing “Real World Data” and conforms to ISO 9000
- Elastec’s “Unique”, “Patented” products are sold World Wide

ELASTEC

- Elastec produce a wide range of equipment including Skimmers, Booms, Tanks, Work Boats and Industrial Vacuums etc. for the many different types of Oil Spill requirements and needs
- Elastec have a full dedicated design and technical support team to help clients choose the right equipment for potential emergency's
- Elastec have extensive practical experience, which ensures the equipment is user friendly, robust and achieves the best results for the required task
- Elastec is dedicated to the mission of "Keeping Our World Clean"

ELASTEC. Defining Moments

- 1989 – Exxon Valdez Oil Spill. American Marine, now part of Elastec, developed the “Fire Boom” for burning oil from Exxon Valdez Disaster
- 2010 – Deepwater Horizon Oil Well Blowout. Elastec teams lead the “controlled burn operations” in the Gulf, where over 300,000 barrels of oil were stopped from reaching sensitive shoreline habitats
- 2011 – Wendy Schmidt Oil Cleanup X Challenge. Elastec won the first prize of One Million Dollars for their patented “Grooved Disc Skimmer” technology. Challenge Target was 9,463 L Per Minute. Elastec achieved and amazing 17,677 L per minute with 90 % efficiency
- Elastec have also won “Arabia’s Excellence in Environmental Applications Award” and the “Nafta Gaz Grand Prix Award” at “Oil & Gas” Warsaw in Poland